

Shoreline Clean Up Operations at Skan Bay
North, Segment SKN-14, December 30, 2004.

DEC 30 2004

Location of Shoreline Segment SKN-14

Oiled grass on island

Oiled grass shore

Oiled sandy beach

Lower Boom Placement in Northern Estuary
(SKN-14).

Donning Personal Protective Equipment

Crews Deploying to Small Island for Clean-up Ops.

DEC 30 2004

Crews used Both the Pitchforks and their Hands to Collect the Oil.

Oiled Shore
Grass Being Collected and Placed into Oily Waste Bags.

DEC 30 2004

Crews Working to Recover Heavy Oiled Asphalt Patch on Island.

DEC 30 2004

Oiled Asphalt / Tar Patches on Island.
White Specks are Soybeans.

DEC 30 2004

Asphalt / Tar Oil On Top and Mixed with Shore Grass.

DEC 30 2004

As Tide Receded,
More Oiled
Shoreline Grass was Exposed and Recovered.

DEC 30 2004

Bagging
Oiled
Soaked
Grass and Debris.

DEC 30 2004

Double Bagging
the Used Full Oily Waste Bags.

DEC 30 2006

Pile of Double Bagged Oily Waste Bags Waiting to be Transported Back to the R/V Cape Flattery.

DEC 30 2004

Crews Starting Clean-up on Sand Beach at Mouth of Northern Estuary.

DEC 30 2004

Weathered Oil Partially Buried on Sand Beach

DEC 30 2004

Buried Oil
About One
(1) Inch
Below Surface.

DEC 30 2004

Clump of Buried Oil Recovered
During Clean-up Operations.

DEC 30 2004

Clean-up Crews Searching for Buried Oil Along Sand Beach.

DEC 30 2004

Raking Sand for Signs of Buried Oil.

DEC 30 2004

Close-up of Recovered Buried Oil.

DEC 30 2004

Double Bagging and Transporting Oily Waste Bags Back to the R/V Cape Flattery.

DEC 30 2004

Shoreline / Clean Up Operations Onboard the R/V Cape Flattery for December 30, 2004 :

Summary

- Conducted Clean-up Ops in the Northern Estuary of Skan Bay (SKN-14).
- 583 Bags of Oily Waste Generated (Completed in First Full Workday of Deployment).
- No Oiled Deceased Wildlife Observed or Collected.
- No Injuries or Personnel Accidents Reported.